SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR APPRENTICES WITH FELONY CONVICTIONS

Individuals who are sexual offenders as defined in La. R.S. 15:536 are prohibited from participating in the Bail Bond Apprentice Program and cannot be issued a license as a bail bond producer. This prohibition applies even if the felony has been expunged, set aside, or dismissed pursuant to law, or if a pardon has been granted. While individuals convicted of felonies other than as a sexual offender as defined in La. R.S. 15:536 are not prohibited by law from participating in the Bail Bond Apprentice Program, there are other statutes which impact individuals with felony convictions from participating in the business of insurance generally as well as their employers. Individuals with felony convictions may require written consent pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §1033. Licensed producers may not employ or otherwise associate with their business individuals who have been convicted of a felony pursuant to La R.S. 22:1554 (A)(18). These laws apply even if the felony has been expunged, set aside, or dismissed pursuant to law, or if a pardon has been granted. Participation in the Bail Bond Apprentice Program without first complying with the requirements of 18 U.S.C. §1033 and Regulation 119 may result in administrative action taken against the apprentice and his/her supervising producer. Such actions may include fines, license denial and the revocation of the supervising producer's license. The apprenticeship registration does not constitute approval by the LDI, an employer waiver pursuant to Regulation 119, or granting of written consent pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §1033.
